United Way KinderClub is a two-part program designed to help children who will be in kindergarten during the 2026-27 school year and their parent or primary caregiver. Sessions cover important school readiness skills and provide information and resources to help you and your child feel ready for school. Sessions will be held at St. James Catholic School and led by St. James staff.

- Meet other kids and parents
- Meet teachers and staff
- Play fun games
- Leave with lots of FREE goodies for learning at home
